MAGIC NUMBER . . . is three, and that's what the boys above will strive for this weekend in the famed Cup Regatta at the Bay-Waveland Yacht Club. Youthful C skippers Bobby Eagan, Buzzy Heausler, Marc Eagan and Woody Stieffel with respective crews will attempt to win the Lipton cup for the third consecutive year, sailing against hundreds of other skippers from the 15 active member clubs in the Gulf Yachting Association. (For more details on the event, see the Sports section in this issue.)

Waveland Civic Assn.

Summer To End With A Bang

With a "bon voyage" message of thanks to the hundreds who came to the Waveland area for the summer season, and to officially mark the end of the summer season, the Waveland

Civic Association will present a fireworks extravaganza on Sunday night, September 2nd-the day before Labor Day, an association spokesman has announced.

Eldon Gilly, president of the Civic Association, in announcing the fireworks display stated that the site selected would be the jetty at Coleman Avenue in Waveland-and the time would be 8 p.m. Gilly explained that the jetty had been selected because of safety factors and also because the location would make it possible for scores of persons with beach homes to the east and west of Coleman Avenue to see the display from their front porches without jamming the beach itself.

Gilly said that Kenneth Fayard, chief of Waveland Volunteer Fire Department, would be in charge of shooting the fireworks. Aside from the goodwill aspects on the controlled fireworks display, the event gives parents a logical and valid excuse for not having fireworks of their own. This, in itself, does much to eliminate the dangers of fireworks handled by persons without the proper experience, Gilly added.

Although the Waveland Civic Association is, as it has been in the past, the sponsoring organization for the event, it would not be possible without financial support from the City of Waveland, the City of Bay St. Louis, the Hancock County Board of Supervisors, and the scores of community-minded merchants and companies located in the Bay St. Louis-Waveland perimeter.

The fireworks display has grown with each passing year, and visitors now come from New Orleans, Gulfport, Biloxi, Pass Christian, Piquette, Sibley and even as far away as Jackson.

Traditionally this has been the "back to school" event, but this will not be the case this year since Louisiana and Mississippi schools are now opening the week before Labor Day rather than after.

Reading Program To Upgrade County School Curriculum

A meeting of the Title I, ESEA, Advisory Committee was held August 28 in the office of the Hancock County School District.

E. E. Breland, assistant superintendent, outlined the Title I program for the three county schools, Gulfview, Hancock North Central, and Charles B. Murphy.

Bay Hires Engineer

The Bay St. Louis City Council has agreed to retain the New Orleans firm Burke and Associates as consulting engineers for the city.

The action came in a recessed meeting of the council Monday at which the engineers' fee was set at $200 a month.

In a second matter, the mayor and commissioners indicated that they are studying the current revenue sharing balance and pledged disbursements of the monies to determine if the city can use the funds to pave additional streets.

The council had advertised for bids for paving of Commagere Blvd. and Webster St. but postponed any action when no bids were received. The advertisement of bids for these roads and others resulting from the revenue sharing study may be announced by the next regular meeting on Sept. 4.

Fees Upped On Land Rolls

George Heitzmann, Hancock County tax collector-assessor, was informed by letter and by telephone August 24 by Mrs. Mary Libby Payne, assistant to the attorney general of Mississippi, that prior opinion from the office of the attorney general stating that several points in one assessment on the assessment roles would entitle the publisher to one fee has been revoked.

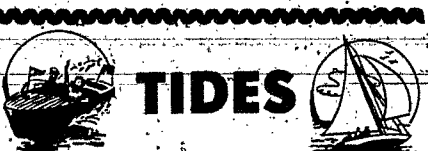

According to Mrs. Payne, effective with all collections beginning August 7, 1973, publishers' fees will be increased to $2 per lot as the statute is now interpreted by the attorney general.

The opinion given by Mrs. Payne Aug. 17 at the tax assessors-collectors conference in Jackson, that the state tax commission would allow $2 on only one entry of land roll, is hereby revoked.

Unless amended by future legislation, the publisher's fee will remain at $2 per lot, the attorney general's office stated.

Breland emphasized that all personnel employed through Title I must work full time for the program and cannot be assigned other duties. Title I reading classes cannot have more than 15 children at one time.

The next meeting will be held at one of the participating schools.

Waveland City Council

Bayou Pollution Claim Denied By Council

The Waveland City Council denied a Jordan River Drive resident's claim Wednesday night that unsanitary waste water will be dumped into Edwards Bayou from the town's new sewerage treatment plant.

Eugene F. Hathaway of Bay St. Louis forwarded a letter to the council which he wrote earlier this month to the Mississippi Air and Water Pollution Board asking that the mayor and board of aldermen reconsider locating the drain into Edwards Bayou because it would create "an intolerable health hazard."

City Attorney Lucien Gex said he thought Hathaway was confusing the drain with Watts Bayou which comes from the Bay St. Louis sewer system. Gex explained that water draining from Waveland's new multi-thousand dollar treatment plant "will be almost drinkable." The Environmental Protection Agency has put up stringent plans for the city to follow, he said. The discharge has to be pure.

The council instructed Gex, the board's secretary, and treatment plant contractor Walter G. Bertschinger to write a letter to Hathaway, who was absent from the meeting, and explain the environmental standards set up for the drain.

In a related matter, Joseph E. Viguerie, Jr., of 107 Nicholson Ave. in Waveland appealed to the council Wednesday for some relief in his drainage and in repairing potholes on his street left from the installation of the sewer system.

Fire Chief Reports On Court House

Hancock County supervisors met in brief session Friday morning with Bay St. Louis Fire Chief Richard Payard to hear his report of the fire department's inspection of the courthouse.

The board reportedly indicated to Payard that 90 percent of the fire code discrepancies listed in the report were already in the correction process.

Action on the remaining items is to be initiated within 60 days.

Martinez Named For Who's Who

Charles D. Martinez received notification this week that he has been selected to be featured in the next edition of Who's Who Among American High School students.

Chuck is a senior at Bay High School and is active on the track team, was recently elected president of the Bay High Chapter of Distributive Education Clubs of America (DECA) and was one of six boys selected to represent this area in Washington D.C. at the U.S. Marine Corp Youth Physical Fitness national competition for 1973.

Chuck also attended American Legion Boys' State at Jackson. He is the son of Mrs. Donald Decker, Marcus Drive, Waveland.

Drug Abuse Center Gets Grant

Governor Bill Waller has announced approval of a $69,998 grant to the Harrison County Family Court by the Executive Committee of the Commission on Law Enforcement Assistance. The funds are to continue maintenance of the Gulf Coast Drug Abuse Center and Catacombs in Gulfport.

"The impact of this program will be felt in an 18-county area of Mississippi," the Governor said. The center serves all those counties which comprise the Law Enforcement Assistance Regional Council IV.

Acting DLEA Director Bill Grissett said, "The purpose of this program is to improve the criminal justice system by providing rehabilitation for the first-time drug offender and to provide the total regional community with the necessary information and resources to understand the problems surrounding drug abuse."

The center, headed by Dr. John F. Russell, is located on Broad Avenue in Gulfport. Its services are available free of charge. These services include confidential counseling, workshops, therapeutic treatment by staff professionals, and public information concerning drug problems.

Sheriff's Statement Is Clarified

In an Echo story of a board of supervisors' meeting last week, Hancock Sheriff Sylvan Ladner was quoted as accusing Supervisors James Travirca and Dolph Kellar of exhorting local Justices of the Peace to dismiss cases for their friends. The inference that Travirca had done so was held to be misleading by the beat five supervisor, who later stated that he has never called a J.P. asking for such a favor. Sheriff Ladner said he did not recall specifically accusing Travirca during that meeting.

ECHO OPEN

The offices of The Sea Coast Echo will be open on Labor Day, Sept. 3. News and advertising deadlines will remain the same for the Sept. 7 issue.

Claiming he and neighboring residents "still feel we're victims of sewage problems", Viguerie also asked that a large excavation at the end of the street be filled.

Clarence Evans, Waveland engineer in charge of the sewer system, told Viguerie he would try to give him some relief until the lift station is installed at the end of the street by the end of this week.

Mayor Pro-Tem John Longo, presiding in the absence of Mayor Garfield Ladner, told Viguerie that the town hoped to have the potholes and related ills repaired when the contractor begins the project cleanup.

The council urged Viguerie and other residents to register any damage complaints caused by the contractor with Bertschinger directly and to file copies of the complaints with Evans and the city hall.

In further business relating to the sewer installation, the council adopted a resolution directing the engineer to issue a change order which would delete sewer laterals to unimproved real property subject to Economic Development Administration and EPA approval.

Alderman Ducre Bourgeois abstained from the voting in objection because he said the resolution would prompt a delay in laying sewer lines for property owners eligible now to build, since the term "real property" denotes land with a dwelling. Bourgeois said that the action would result in the unnecessary tearing up of streets throughout the year as houses were built.

In a second resolution the council instructed the engineer to install one lateral with a "Y" to two adjoining properties instead of single lateral to each house. The engineer was also authorized to increase the unit amount of paving as necessary to complete the re-paving of all streets.

A fourth action authorized the engineer to take the necessary steps to implement a crossing at U.S. Highway 90, 300 feet west of Nicholson Ave.

The council also acknowledged correspondence from U.S. Congressmen John Stennis and Trent Lott in answer to Waveland's appeal for forgiveness on federal loans issued after Hurricane Camille. The congressmen said that each loan will be considered on individual merit.

Legislation passed last April provides that interest on loans made in future disasters are not to exceed five percent.

In other matters, the council accepted the bids of $8,955 from Charlie's Ford for a garbage truck chassis, and $8,934.75 from Turri-Lane Chevrolet on a 1974 Chevrolet chassis cab.

authorized the spending of $2854.43 from revenue sharing funds for a new car for City Marshal Fred Bourgeois.

approved the cleaning of two lots in Anchorage Subdivision which are deemed health hazards, and voted to install a street light on Gex St. off McLauren.

DOTTIE VIGUERIE

Bay Seniors In Who's Who

Dottie Viguerie and Candy Ladner, both seniors at Bay Senior High, have been chosen to be featured in the seventh annual Edition of WHO'S WHO AMONG AMERICAN HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS, 1973-74, the largest student award publication in the nation.

Students from more than 18,000 public, private, and parochial high schools throughout the country are recognized in the book for their leadership in academics, athletics, activities or community service. Less than two percent of the junior and senior class students nationwide are awarded this recognition.

Miss Viguerie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Viguerie, Jr., of Waveland is active in the Tiger Lily Garden Club and the French Club at Bay High. She has attended Girls' State and Mississippi State University's Horticulture Seminar.

She plans to attend college upon graduation in June and major in merchandising.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Ladner of Bay St. Louis, Miss Ladner is active in the French and science clubs at Bay High; teaches dancing at Piccola's School of Dance, and is a member of the "Tiger Pride" band. She plans to attend the University of Southern Mississippi upon graduation in May.

In addition to having their biographies published in the book, both Miss Viguerie and Miss Ladner will also compete for one of ten $1,000 scholarship awards funded by the publishers and will be invited to participate in the firm's annual "survey of High Achievers" later in the academic year.

ONLY THE DRIVER of the VW van in the foreground was injured in a freak accident Monday morning occurring on South Beach Drive in Bay St. Louis. Two rear left wheels suddenly broke loose from the school bus (visible in right background behind the tow truck) and rolled into the path of the oncoming van, causing the driver, Warren Duffie, of Bay St. Louis, to swerve head-on into the utility pole. Duffie sustained a deep gash on his head, but none of the nine students on the bus was injured, nor was the driver-owner, Robert McNease of Gulfport. Ironically, the bent sign says "Hancock General Hospital Picnic!"

Police Report

Bay St. Louis police responded to 36 calls in the period of Aug. 22 through Aug. 29.

The driver of a pickup truck miraculously escaped serious injury early Saturday morning when he lost control of the truck at the curve on Toume St. and the railroad tracks. Eugene W. Snyder told Bay St. Louis police that the truck struck a telephone pole guidewire, causing the vehicle to flip over and land upside down in the street. Snyder, who was pinned in the cab, was extricated by Ptn. Larry Ladner and Wilber Dorsey and taken to Hancock General Hospital where he was given emergency treatment for cuts and bruises and released. Chief William Carbonette also investigated the 12:15 a.m. accident.

Warren Duffie, driver of a Volkswagen van, sustained more serious injuries Monday morning as a result of a freak accident involving his van and a private bus company vehicle, Chief Carbonette said.

Robert McNease, owner of School Bus Systems of Gulfport and driver of the bus, told police that he was driving a school bus load of children east on Beach Drive in the Bay about 8 a.m., when the two left rear wheels of the bus suddenly came off, rolling into the path of Duffie's vehicle. One of the bus wheels struck the van causing Duffie to swerve sharply and collide head on with a utility pole. Duffie was taken by Riemann Fahey ambulance to Hancock General Hospital where he was treated for a deep gash on his head.

McNease later told the Echo that he suspected someone had tampered with the wheels, as that bus and all the company buses had been thoroughly checked by qualified mechanics on the Coast and in Mobile twice in the last week. In addition, McNease said the bus in question had been used to transport Gulfport band students to New Orleans and back last Thursday, and all the wheel lugs had been checked at that time. The incident is under investigation, McNease stated.

Colling's Corner

By E.S. Colling

We are about to take our annual trip up into the heart of the State, to visit Jackson and the Trace, but especially to dig up some more information and old data about the famous Robinson Road, which figured so largely in the earliest history of this country.

This road runs westward from Columbus on the Tombigbee river to an intersection with the Trace at Doak's Stand a short distance north of Jackson. It was begun in 1821 and was in partial use some ten years later. Its purpose was to provide a shorter outlet for the people and products of northwestern Mississippi to the markets of Jackson and Natchez; their only way of reaching these cities was up the Tombigbee to Cotton Gin Port and thence by wagon on a long and hard route to the Trace south of Tupelo, a distance of 260 miles which the new route to Doak's Stand would cut in half. Even so, it would be a long, hard trip, but not nearly so difficult as the building of the Robinson Road turned out to be.

The route from Columbus led across a terrible country of swamps and bayous and rocky ridges, and with the road equipment in use at that time the work turned out to be a nightmare. Slowly the road was pushed - or coaxed, might be a better term - through deep aloughs and thick forests and brush, across one bayou after another, up and down the rocky hills

(the government contract specified that no grade should be more than 15 percent). All this meant grading in mud and water, filling, building bridges, a mammoth job for ill equipped men.

Finally it was finished - after a fashion, and contracts were let by the government for the operation of toll houses here and there. But nobody paid any toll, only a trickle of traffic used the road after all this heartbreaking work. It was a terrible trip, and the folks for whom the road had been built preferred the old route, longer but safer and easier.

Consequently, few stands, or taverns, were opened along the new highway, and the few settlements that were eventually established remained small. Within a few years the old road was nearly abandoned, and today little is left as a reminder except the marker where it joined the Natchez Trace.

We like the old Robinson Road. It fits so well the spirit of the times when Mississippi was a Territory and then a State. There is a feeling of isolation and self-containment about the whole region from little Columbus across the swamps and ridges to the brooding woods along the Trace as if the country were awaiting an awakening to the bustle and activity of a modern world. The building of the Robinson Road was an important chapter in the history of our State, and we hope today's children will learn about it and its significance.

BUSINESS LOANS FOR VIETNAM ERA VETERANS

The Small Business Administration recently announced programs to help Vietnam veterans start and maintain their own businesses.

Under new procedures Vietnam veterans will be eligible for business loans, federal government contracts, and management assistance under programs previously restricted to "disadvantaged" persons. Ex-servicemen and women who served in the armed forces since August 5, 1964, and were honorably discharged are considered eligible to apply for such assistance.

EOL LOANS

Economic Opportunity Loans (EOL) of up to $50,000 for up to fifteen years at a low interest rate are available. Criteria for such loans are more liberal than in other SBA lending programs, although the veteran must satisfy certain credit and character requirements and must be able to furnish reasonable assurance the loan will be repaid. Loans will be available to veterans who wish to expand and existing business or to establish a new one.

As with all SBA loans, the EOL program is predicated on the assumption the veteran cannot obtain funds under the SBA's regular business program. Applicants must be sole proprietors, partnerships, or corporations. Where there are two or more principals, the veteran must own at least 50 percent of the business.

Since SBA considers that proper management is necessary to a successful business, a condition of such a loan may require the applicant to undertake management training or counseling if it is necessary.

Federal government contracts under the SBA program obtain for small businesses a fair share of purchases made by the government for goods and services.

In such contracts, the SBA obtains from other federal agencies contracts suitable for small businesses and subcontracts them to small firms. Once a veteran's firm is approved by SBA, the agency then locates and awards contracts that fit the firm's capabilities.

Management and Technical assistance from private management consulting companies is contracted by SBA.

This new assistance follows a previous agreement between SBA and VA to help veterans receive schooling and training necessary for eligibility for SBA loans.

Veterans interested in investigating any SBA program should contact their nearest SBA office. For our state any of the following may be contacted:

Our Readers Write

Dear Editor:
Saturday night, Aug 25th, my son had his bike stolen at the local skating ring around 10:00 P.M.

He contacted the police about 10:05 P.M. and relayed the information. At 10:30 P.M. policeman Frank Hess, drove into our driveway with what was left of the bike. It had been stripped of its wheels and was found lying on the side of the road on Sycamore St.

We wish to thank patrolman Hess and the police department for the quick efficient response to our call.

My son and I also would like to express our sorrow for the fact that some young children in our community have to steal from someone else so they may have something of their own. We earnestly hope that the next time temptation comes their way they will stop and ask this question: "How would I feel if someone took what belonged to me?"

Sincerely,
Andre J. Arceneaux and son
Andre Jr.

LOOK BEFORE YOU LEAP

Home Makers Notes

By Norine Barnes, Hancock County Home Economist

REMAKING JELLY

If you have made jellies that are too soft, try recocking some of the jelly to make it firmer. It is not always possible to remake soft jellies so that the product will be satisfactory. However, soft jellies can sometimes be improved by recocking according to the following directions. It is best to recock only 4 to 6 cups at one time.

To remake with powdered pectin, begin by measuring the jelly to be recocked. For each quart of jelly measure 1/4 cup water and 4 teaspoons powdered pectin. Mix the pectin and water and bring to a boil, stirring constantly to prevent scorching. Add the jelly and sugar. Stir thoroughly.

Bring to a full rolling boil over high heat, stirring constantly. Boil mixture hard for 1/2 minute. Remove jelly from the heat, skim, pour into hot containers and seal.

To remake with liquid pectin, heat one quart of jelly over high heat. When jelly begins to boil, quickly add 3/4 cup sugar, 2 tablespoons lemon juice, and 2 tablespoons liquid pectin. Bring to a full rolling boil and stir constantly. Boil mixture hard for 1 minute. Remove jelly from the heat, skim, pour into containers and seal.

To remake without added pectin, heat the jelly to boiling and boil a few minutes. Use a temperature, spoon or refrigerator test to determine how long to cook it.

For the temperature test, use a jelly, candy or deep-fat thermometer. Cook the jelly mixture to a temperature of 8 degrees F. higher than the boiling point of water. Because the boiling point may change with different atmospheric conditions, check the temperature of boiling water with the thermometer before the jelly is recocked.

The spoon or sheet test is made by dipping a cool metal spoon in the boiling jelly mixture. Then raise it at least a foot above the kettle, out of the steam, and turn the spoon so the syrup runs off the side. If the syrup forms two drops that flow together and fall off the spoon as one sheet, the jelly should be done. Although this test is widely used, it is not entirely dependable.

The refrigerator test is made by pouring a small amount of boiling jelly on a cold plate. Then put it in the ice compartment of a refrigerator for a few minutes. If the mixture gels, it should be done. During this test, the jelly mixture should be removed from the heat.

VA Report

EDITOR'S NOTE: Veterans and their families are asking thousands of questions concerning the benefits their Government provides for them through the Veterans Administration. Below are some representative queries. Additional information may be obtained at any VA office.

Q - Do service-disabled military retirees have to waive part of their retirement pay to qualify for the $150 annual clothing allowance paid by the Veterans Administration?

A - No. However, like veterans who draw VA compensation for service connected disabilities, they must apply for this benefit.

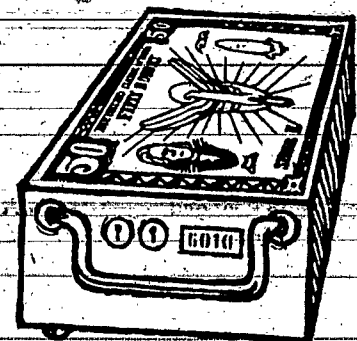

Q - The Veterans Administration stopped approving GI home loans in July. Why, and when will these loans be available again?

A - VA temporarily withheld final approval of loans because Congress recessed June 30 without extending the agency's authority to set interest rates, causing the rate to revert to six percent. Approval of loans was resumed July 26, 1973, when PL 93-75 extended this authority (current rate 7.75 percent).

Q - Under what circumstances does a veteran qualify for an additional $150 in burial allowances?

A - Under a law signed June 18, 1973, the Veterans Administration on August 1 began paying a plot or interment allowance of $150 (in addition to establish maximum $250 allowance) for eligible veterans not buried in national cemeteries or cemeteries under jurisdiction of the United States.

Chamber Report

By Sylvia McComiskey
Hancock County Chamber of Commerce Manager

Our Chamber sent representatives to a Public Hearing in Tallahassee, Florida on August 21 through 23 held by the U.S. Bureau of Land Management, Department of the Interior with a prepared statement on the subject of Leasing of Federal Off-Shore Lands for Oil Exploration.

Your Board of Directors, in speaking for the membership, took an affirmative stand on leasing of these off-shore lands to the Petroleum industry with stipulations concerning Pollution Control and possible Revenue Sharing from these leases with the States adjacent to these lands, plus consideration for our area should energy shortages develop.

The Board of Directors of our Chamber voted unanimously to contribute $200.00 to the Hancock County Firemen's Association to go toward purchase of equipment for their use. This is to show the Chamber's appreciation for their efforts, which have made great strides toward development of fine fire-fighting services for the entire County. May this Association continue to grow and receive support from the people it is designed to protect.

The flashing lights for the Highway 90 - Dunbar Avenue school crossing are being installed at the present time and should be in operation very soon.

Did you know that the Mississippi Test Facility, with over twenty Federal, State and University organizations devoted to environmental study, is the only facility in the Nation with every element necessary for total environmental research? With major interest in the news today focused on the energy crisis, population and pollution problems, etc.; we can feel pride in contributing in a major way towards solving these problems that affect the entire World.

We understand that initial work is progressing on modification of the test stands scheduled to begin testing the new Shuttle Rocket Engines in 1975. Apparently, plans call for use of all three large rocket testing towers at MTF in this program. Hancock County can look forward to being listed among major contributors to the Space Program again. Don't forget about MTF when your tooting Hancock County's horn!!

County Agent's Notes

John W. Smith
County Agent
Hancock County

SOYBEAN HARVESTING
Spend some time now to get your harvesting equipment in first class condition can boost profits when combining time gets here.

A well maintained combine that is adjusted to changing crop, weather and field conditions will help reduce harvesting losses.

OVERSEEDING AND SODSEEDING
Make permanent pastures go further by either overseeding or sodseeding ryegrass or cereals or combinations of the two.

Never overseed or sodseed more than two-thirds of your pasture. Seed only the amount of pasture your cattle can graze heavily in the spring. Summer pastures not overseeded or sodseeded will grow in April and May and produce early summer grazing or a hay cutting while the ryegrass is being grazed off.

If overseeded ryegrass is to be cut for hay, it should be cut by early May or the summer grasses will be severely penalized.

When renovating for overseeding or when sodseeding, always run on the contour to reduce erosion and increase soil moisture storage.

When sodseeding or overseeding, consider adding a clover to your pasture mixture. White, arrowleaf and crimson clovers will add quality to your permanent pastures and will reduce the amount of nitrogen you will need to apply.

Inoculate clover only with the inoculant that is specified for the particular clover you are using.

SEED PRODUCTION
Spend the time to rogue fields of off-type plants and weeds missed by herbicides and cultivators will pay dividends. It is much simpler to remove most weeds from fields than to try to remove the weed seeds by processing after harvest.

A few cockleburrs in your cotton fields or a few purple moonflower plants in your soybeans can cause losses if they cannot be removed by processing.

Get your seed storage facilities ready now. There will not be time for this after harvest begins. Cleaning seed house and storage tanks thoroughly gets rid of insects and remove old seed. This will prevent contamination or mixing of varieties. Check fans, aeration systems and conveyors to be sure they are working properly before seed are put in storage.

HOME GARDENING

La. Man Rescued After 14-Hours In Bayou Lacroix

A poignant story of police perseverance and a woman's faith was revealed in a missing persons report to Bay St. Louis police recently.

Bay police received a call Aug. 22 about 10:30 p.m. from Mrs. James Adams, who reported that her husband had left the boat launch at the end of Kidd for assistance. Kidd was for six years county Civil Defense Director.

The four men searched all the waterways and banks in the area throughout the night to no avail. Finally, just before 8 a.m. they decided to make one more trip up Bayou Lacroix before giving up the search.

About one mile west of the Bayou Lacroix bridge they found Adams, clinging to his swamped skiff. The little boat filled with water about 6:30 the night before, he told his rescuers, flooding the outboard motor and leaving him with no means of escape from the bayou, and unable to walk on the marshy swamp banks.

Suffering only slightly from exposure after his 14-hour ordeal, Adams was brought back to his relieved wife and son.

Carbonette, with Asst. Chief Douglas Williams, combed the bayou and swamp area for Adams until shortly after midnight when Carbonette called Joe Seal, State Boat and Water Safety Patrolman, and City Commissioner Lucien

He was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John A. Haas and a member of Annunciation Catholic Church. He is survived by a brother, Vernon Haas, Kiln.

Funeral services were held at 10:30 a.m. Monday from Riemann-Fahey Funeral Home followed by a Requiem Mass at Annunciation Catholic Church, Kiln, with the Rev. Victor Seidel officiating.

Interment was in Bayou Coco Cemetery. Pallbearers were Joe Vernon Haas, John A. Rhodes II, John A. Rhodes, Hugo Vernon Haas, Ray Landry and Thomas A. Rhodes.

MRS. ELIZABETH BELL Mrs. Elizabeth (Betty) Bell, 82, widow of James F. Bell Sr., died Saturday afternoon, August 25, at Gulf View Haven Nursing Home where she had resided for the past five years.

Mrs. Bell, who came to the Coast in 1935, formerly resided in Biloxi. She was active in the Miramar Garden Club; was a member of the Beauvoir Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy and a member of Nativity Parish Catholic Church.

Survivors are a son, James E. Bell Jr., Biloxi; a brother, Joseph B. Muelling, Ocean Springs, and two grandsons.

Funeral services were held at 10 a.m. Tuesday at Bradford O'Keefe Funeral Home, Biloxi, with Msgr. Thomas E. Williams, pastor Our Lady of Fatima Catholic Church, officiating. Interment was in Biloxi Cemetery.

Marcel Naquin, 53, a resident of Bay St. Louis for approximately eight years, died at 12:30 a.m. Sunday, August 26, at Hancock General Hospital.

The body was taken to Charvin Funeral Home, Houma, La., for funeral arrangements.

Funeral services were held at 10 a.m. Tuesday at Bradford O'Keefe Funeral Home, Biloxi, with Msgr. Thomas E. Williams, pastor Our Lady of Fatima Catholic Church, officiating. Interment was in Biloxi Cemetery.

MISS FLAME contestant, Amy Lynn Rhodes, is representing the Waveland Volunteer Fire Dept. in the Hancock County Firemen's Assn. contest. Amy is the 11-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Wrensted, Jr. of Waveland. She is a sixth grade student at Waveland Elementary School and lists art and singing at the top of her favorite things to do. Amy will compete with other contestants for the title of Miss Flame for 1974 at the County Fair this fall.

Contest Produces Two 'Greatest Moms'

Bay St. Louis Jaycee Wives have announced that a tie resulted from their recent Greatest Mom in the World contest, which was open to all area youngsters.

Essays on "Why I think my Mom is the greatest" by children of Mrs. Mittie Zengarling, 306 Citizen St., and Mrs. Marie Beauguez, 38 Chantilly St., were in the opinion of the judges equally eloquent, leading to the decision for a tie.

Mrs. Zengarling, wife of county supervisor H. (Bully) Zengarling, is a mother of five, and Mrs. Beauguez has two children. A spokesman for the sponsoring organization stated, "We want to congratulate every mother in this community, especially the winners, for the unending time and devotion dedicated to raising the future citizens of our community."

Lebanon Topic Of Meeting

The Womens Missionary Union of the First Baptist Church of Waveland met at the church Aug. 16 for a regular monthly meeting.

Theme of the meeting was "Experimenting with new ideas", a study of missionary efforts in Lebanon. The meeting room was arranged and decorated in the decor of Lebanon in olden days to create an atmosphere of closeness with the subject country.

Mrs. Grace Clayburn led the call to prayer.

Mrs. Allison Heath showed slides of Lebanon taken during her trip to the Holy Land.

Luncheon was prepared and served by Mrs. Edna Farve.

Those attending included Mmes. Mary V. Blackstock,

Mae Tenney, Allison Heath, Grace Clayburn, Edna Farve, Ruby Necaise, Sadie Favre, Alicia Caddell, Etta Roach, Alberta Daly, Avis Gibbons, and Dee Barnett.

Harrison Cty. Leading The Way! Riley Says

In a report issued Tuesday Earl Riley, executive director of the Mississippi Coast Crime Commission stated, "The tax payer of Harrison County and the state of Mississippi should be justifiably proud of the decisive action taken by the Harrison County board of supervisors in appointing Mr. Jack A. Corkran to conduct an in-depth study of county government looking toward the implementation of a county unit system of government."

"The fact that the Harrison County board of supervisors mean business," said Riley, "is clearly reflected in the appointment of Mr. Corkran to conduct this study. Mr. Corkran is probably the foremost authority on county expenditures and his credentials include not only a academic status in research but also the total spectrum of business management and administration. He is dedicated to the improvement of county government in all its many facets and we can expect that he, with the full cooperation of the supervisors, will produce a model of efficiency and economy in the administration of government in Harrison County. To this end, the Miss. Coast Crime Comm. pledges its full support and cooperation to Mr. Corkran and the Harrison County Board of supervisors."

Riley continued, "In the initiation of this study by the Harrison County supervisors we can sense the thrust of the complete spirit of cooperation which can lead only to the improvement and progress of county and state government."

U.S. Newspapers Hit By Paper Shortage

Strikes at eight Canadian paper mills and the cost of pollution abatement equipment in American mills have resulted in the tight distribution of newspaper among newspaper publishers.

U.S. newspapers are receiving 6,000 tons a day less newspaper due to the walk-out of several thousand paper workers in Canada. According to Newspaper Publishers' Association reports total usage in June, 1973, at 870,495 tons, 4.6 percent more than in June, 1972, can be obtained to make up for the shortages.

The situation has taken a particularly hard toll on smaller papers which have been forced to cut back on pages and features offered in addition to advertising revenue. Some papers have eliminated editorial pages and reduced space for sports and women's news in order to continue production.

The newspaper shortage comes at a period when total U.S. newspaper consumption is at an all-time high. The American Newspaper Publishers' Association reports total usage in June, 1973, at 870,495 tons, 4.6 percent more than in June, 1972, was 732,065 tons.

Paper mill strikes started in early July and involved office and technical employees, members of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers; and the United Paperworkers' International Union. Contract negotiations were broken off late in July when the unions rejected a company offer and were scheduled to pick up within a couple of days.

The second development contributing to the paper shortage is increased environmental controls on paper mills. Publishers' Auxiliary reports that almost as much money was spent last year on pollution abatement as for new plants and equipment.

Edward Hall, editor and publisher of The Sea Coast Echo, reported this week that while the Echo thus far has not been adversely affected by the shortage, he has begun taking steps to conserve newspaper. In addition to a general tightening up of pages, the Echo will be dropping some complimentary mailings to State agencies, universities, and advertising agencies and exchanges to other newspapers.

"The Echo will continue to render the best service possible," Hall said.

JR. AUXILIARY SWIMMING

A total of 69 children participated in the free swimming lessons sponsored by the Bay-Waveland Junior Auxiliary earlier this month. Auxiliary member Mrs. Fred Wagner, a certified American Red Cross Water Safety Instructor, conducted classes at St. Stanislaus pool in Junior Life Saving and Intermediate Swimming for youngsters. The swimming program was an extension of the Junior Auxiliary's annual Summer Fun House project.

Mr. and Mrs. Patrick J. Ryan, Bay St. Louis, announce the birth of their second child and second daughter, Lisa Marie, August 2, at Gulfport Memorial Hospital. She weighed eight pounds, two ounces.

Mrs. Ryan is the former Marilyn McDonald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David N. McDonald. Mr. and Mrs. James A. Ryan are the paternal grandparents.

TB Tests Required For Students, Staffs

All children who will register for school this September should have all immunizations and a skin test for tuberculosis prior to registration, according to the Hancock County Health Department.

Proper immunizations include DPT, Polio, measles, and rubella, which can be obtained through private physicians or at the local Health Department on Dunbar Avenue, Bay St. Louis.

Clinics are held for this purpose every Monday from 8 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. and on Thursdays from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

The Health Department also advises that all employees of public, private and parochial school systems are required by State law to take the tuberculosis skin test within three months prior to the opening of school.

Holiday Schedule

Set

There will be no garbage pick up in Bay St. Louis on Labor Day, Sept. 3, according to an announcement by the mayor's office.

Bufkin-Ladner Vows Solemnized

Green Creek Baptist Church, Petal, Miss., was the setting August 11 for the afternoon wedding of Miss Connie Lynn Bufkin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J.C. Bufkin, Petal, Miss., and Don Richard Ladner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sylvan J. Ladner Jr., Bay St. Louis.

Brother Q.C. Barrett, pastor, and Rev. Thomas White, Lumberton Catholic Church, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

A brass arch candelabra draped with garlands of greenery, holding burning tapers formed a background for the ceremony. Brass tree candelabra entwined with greenery were on either side.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of Italian silk designed with Venice lace scrolls encircling the lifted bodice with featured Venice lace outlined the yoke, high close neckline and long full Bishop sleeves banded with wide cuffs trimmed with lace. The skirt was enhanced with bands of Venice lace scrolls down the front of the gown and bordering the hemline.

A full cloud veil of silk illusion fell from a Victorian cap of Venice lace. She carried a cascade bouquet of petite white carnations with a cattleya orchid corsage in the center.

Miss Pam Wilke, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Misses Steve Netterville, Buddy Keyes and James Taylor, all Petal, Miss.; Mrs. Bill Toland, Gulfport; Mrs. Tommy Davis, sister of the groom, Mobile and Mrs. Ronnie LaFontaine, Bay St. Louis.

They wore floor length lavender crepe gowns with pearl and sequin trim. Their headpieces were fashioned of purple statice and they carried nose-gay bouquets of pink pom poms, purple statice and purple asters.

Miss Tracy Ladner, flower girl sister of the groom, wore a floor length lavender crepe dress trimmed with pearls and sequins. She carried a basket of pink pom poms, purple statice and purple asters.

Hover-Peterson Nuptials

Miss Dorothy Hover, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Hover of Pearlington, Miss., and Michael Ray Peterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Peterson, Bay St. Louis, were married at 1 p.m. Saturday, August 18, in a double ring ceremony at Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church with Rev. Michael Tracey, associate pastor, officiating.

Mrs. John McKenna, organist, played the traditional wedding marches. Given-in-marriage by her father, the bride wore an Italian silk and Chantilly lace gown. Seed pearls formed a lattice pattern down the front between panels of sculptured lace. Clusters of crystal chips accented the design. Scalloped lace trimmed the neckline and formed cuffs on the long full sleeves. Her cloud shaped train, trimmed with appliques, was edged with scalloped lace. Her long veil of silk illusion drifted from a soft velvet bow. She carried a Colonial bouquet of pink carnations and white pom poms.

The bride was attended by her sister Mrs. Lyndal Dorsey as matron of honor; Miss Denise Peterson, sister of the groom, as maid of honor, and bridesmaids, Miss Dot McArthur and Mrs. Sarah Hover, sister-in-law of the bride. Miss Libby Peterson, sister of the groom, served as flower girl.

The maids wore sheer flower flecked dresses over silk-in-pastel shades and carried orchid bouquets. The flower girl wore a white satin dress trimmed in pink ribbon and carried a basket of flowers.

Ben Ferrell was best man. Groomsmen and ushers were Gary Blaize, Leroy Peterson and Robert Hover. Chris Peterson, brother of the groom, carried the rings.

A reception was held at Ramada Inn, Waveland.

Mrs. Hover wore for the occasion a pale pink knit dress with white accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. The mother of the groom chose a long dress featuring a purple top and flowered skirt. A pink carnation corsage completed her ensemble.

The bride's table, overlaid with a white cloth, held a three-tiered cake trimmed in blue and silver with a traditional bride and groom ornament on the top tier. Mrs. Frankie Jean Seals presided at the table.

For traveling the bride wore a green-knit dress with white accessories.

A TOUR OF NEW ORLEANS and a trip on the Mark Twain were on the itinerary for the above group of AARP (American Assoc. of Retired Persons) members from the Bay-Waveland area. Mr. Gene Hathaway, travel and recreation chairman, planned the recent trip.

INTELLECTUAL AND PERCEPTUAL READINESS

We all want our children to be bright and do well in their school work. However, in the group of children who will begin school this fall all levels of achievement and ability will be represented. Although age is considered by the lawmakers of most states as the best overall measure of readiness for school, there are always wide differences among first graders in physical growth, social maturity, and intellectual and perceptual development. Even children within each family show differences in their readiness to begin school at age six.

Thus, while we try to encourage each child's natural ability and eagerness to learn, we must also recognize and accept his limitations. We should not attempt to demand perfection beyond his capabilities. Expectations, restrictive limits, or punishment cannot make a child achieve more than he is capable of achieving.

METHODIST SONGFEST

The Pearlington Methodist Church is having a SONGFEST and prayer Wednesday, September 5th beginning with refreshments and coffee in the Fellowship hall at 7 p.m. A highlight will be the songfest following in the sanctuary. There will be no sermon on this occasion. All members and their friends are invited.

ment cannot make a child achieve more than he is capable of achieving.

However, we can help our children become ready for the formal learning experiences of school by providing many varied opportunities for discovering their world through experimentation, observation. Parents can help a child in his intellectual development—his capacity for thinking, knowing, perceiving, remembering, recognizing, abstracting, and generalizing—by encouraging him to solve problems by himself, by providing surroundings to explore and observe freely, and by providing materials to experiment with the learn from. We should encourage the child to develop his own natural curiosity, to make decisions. As a child takes on more responsibility he develops his self-confidence and his ability to solve problems. The parent who consistently intervenes in the child's decision-making or over-involves himself in the child's experiences is undermining his child's self-confidence.

Children also differ widely in the rate at which they develop their recognition of perceptual relationships. A lack of perceptual readiness may be shown by a child's lack of coordination, an inability to identify spatial relationships such as right or

Indiana Congressman Tours NASA-MTF

Congressman J. Edward Roush (D-Indiana), who has for years been an "advocate" and shown a close interest in this nation's space and environmental activities, visited the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration's Data Buoy Office recently.

Located at the NASA Marshall Space Flight Center's Mississippi Test Facility (MTF), the National Data Buoy Office is conducting research and development of a national environmental data buoy system.

Congressman Roush is a member of the Committee on Appropriations; Subcommittee on HUD, Space, Science and Veterans; Subcommittee on District of Columbia and Subcommittee on Foreign Operations.

The primary reason for his visit to MTF was to see first hand the operations of the National Data Buoy Office. He also met with and was briefed by officials of several federal agencies involved in space and environmental research at the site.

During his stay he was taken on a tour of the facility which included environmental laboratories and the huge towers which will be used to test the Space Shuttle main rocket engines.

He was hosted by CDR. Peter A. Morrill, deputy director of the Data Buoy Office, and welcomed to the MTF on behalf of NASA by Deputy Director Henry F. Auter.

The St. Stanislaus Alumni Association will sponsor a tour to Mexico City on October 12-17, this year. The trip is open to all members of the alumni association and the parents of students at St. Stanislaus. The tour will leave New Orleans on the morning of October 12 and return to New Orleans on the evening of October 17. Optional sightseeing trips will be provided in Mexico City by Mr. Fernando Betanzos, a 1951 graduate of St. Stanislaus. Further information concerning the First Annual Alumni Trip may be had by contacting the alumni office at St. Stanislaus.

KANTCHA KETCHUM

By L.S. (Doc) Elliott

Been rather hot for the past week for fishing. Think that has had something to do with bass not hitting. Bass feed especially in shallow water. They have had to go to deeper water. They were hitting good the past couple of weeks. Also perch, Speckles are still being caught along the seawall, down by Bayou Caddy, some at Three Oaks, Red Fish Bayou and at Outer Campbell when conditions were right.

For those who like to fish with bait big croakers and other salt water fish such as red fish, sheepshead are being caught up Jordan River. You have to find where they are. Flounders are also being caught on the hook and line.

Eddie Marquez is another one who claims that flounders and soft crabs didn't do too good this summer. Eddie catches both of them.

Mike Bailey while fishing on the Highway Bridge caught a few fish including a 50-lb. drum which he hooked. After playing it for a good while, finally cut it loose. Too big to handle he said. He did catch a three and a half lb. speck. Speckles must be getting ready to go up Jordan River.

Joseph Scavo and son have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. A.J. Scavo. Joe is an ardent fisherman and flounderer. Didn't do too good this time, he said.

Sorry to report that Harry Brooks has been hospitalized. He suffered a heart ailment. Doing better we were informed. Hurry and get out fellow.

Maurice Timkin of New Jersey, his wife and four children have been visiting Tony Scavo on Meadow Lane in Waveland. They made a trip 25 miles from Chandelan Island. Made a nice catch of eight King Mackerel, seven Spanish Mackerel and six Bonito. The trip was wonderful, they claimed. Also included in the catch was one Blue Fish. The largest King Mackerel tipped the Scales at 16 pounds. Returned home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bubba Dear are another local couple who do a lot of fishing and crabbing. Have been getting plenty of both, they said.

Pete Richardson, also known as "Peter Gunn", enjoys his fishing. He is the son of the late Mr. Richardson of Jourdan River. Enough said. Another one of my old paddlers before we used electric motors. Pete is also an ardent hunter. Knows the best hunting and fishing spots hereabout.

Billy Hawkins, the nephew of the late Uncle Bud Seller, fishes with Tut Monti. They made another nice catch of big croakers the other day in Campbell's Bayou near the croaker hold in Pearl River. Tut said they were hitting like made. Bull croakers are good fish food and are a kick when hooked.

The three Henrys, Henry (Tut) Monti, his son Henry and Henry the III reported catching some redfish and sheepshead. They know where to get them.

Dick Proctor and Robert Perkins make up the band known as "The Two Pals," a steel guitar and guitar combination party at nightclubs, parties, etc. They are two swell young men. Two busy right now to do much fishing, they claim.

Here's a heavy fish story: A man who had discovered the joys of fishing became even more insistent than most fishermen upon recounting his triumphs to skeptical acquaintances. Disgruntled by their thinly veiled hints that he was a liar, he bought a pair of scales, installed them in his game room and had his friends watch as he weighed his fish.

One evening a neighbor burst in excitedly to borrow the scales. He was back in ten minutes, his face flushed with delight. "Congratulate me," he cried. "I'm the father of a 24-pound baby boy!"

SPORTSMAN OF THE WEEK—Besides fishing, John Terrick enjoys spearfishing and underwater exploring. He says Bay St. Louis is a wonderful place to live and wants to retire here. John is associated with Eljer Plumbing Co.

John Scafide, Sr. was proud of the 18 lb. red fish he caught out in the Marsh last week. Had a little trouble landing it, he said.

Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Foster returned to Memphis Monday after a vacation at the Bay. Both got in some fishing and crabbing while here. Mrs. Foster caught a nice flounder which she was bragging about. Plan to return in November when speckle trout fishing is at its best.

Had a good fish fry at Eddie Marquez's Bar on the beach Wednesday night. Something out of this world. Beverages of course completed the meal.

Seems like we write up the same fishermen, but we have to if we want good information. They fish all the time. Harry Roman, Hake Ogden and Louie Decell were guests of a group from New Orleans who made a fishing trip to Empire, La. Their catch consisted of Red Snappers, Mackerel, Blue Fish and 900 pounds of big croakers. This was vouchered for by Harry. The trip was made on the charter boat "Early Bird" with Captain Louis Ramm.

Clarence Schindler and Frances Saucier caught 30 large white trout up Jourdan River over the weekend. Most anything can be caught up this river. Big croakers are also being caught there, right now.

Roy Strong, his son-in-law, Geo Judice and Brans-Doucet came over from Lafayette for the weekend. Roy said they made a fishing trip to the Marshes. According to them they slaughtered speckle trout. All are ardent fishermen.

Billy Hawkins, the nephew of the late Uncle Bud Seller, fishes with Tut Monti. They made another nice catch of big croakers the other day in Campbell's Bayou near the croaker hold in Pearl River. Tut said they were hitting like made. Bull croakers are good fish food and are a kick when hooked.

The three Henrys, Henry (Tut) Monti, his son Henry and Henry the III reported catching some redfish and sheepshead. They know where to get them.

Dick Proctor and Robert Perkins make up the band known as "The Two Pals," a steel guitar and guitar combination party at nightclubs, parties, etc. They are two swell young men. Two busy right now to do much fishing, they claim.

Here's a heavy fish story: A man who had discovered the joys of fishing became even more insistent than most fishermen upon recounting his triumphs to skeptical acquaintances. Disgruntled by their thinly veiled hints that he was a liar, he bought a pair of scales, installed them in his game room and had his friends watch as he weighed his fish.

One evening a neighbor burst in excitedly to borrow the scales. He was back in ten minutes, his face flushed with delight. "Congratulate me," he cried. "I'm the father of a 24-pound baby boy!"

Have mentioned several times that high tides are bad for bass fishing. Proved it Sunday. Alden and I went bass fishing. The tide didn't fall was high all day. Caught only four. Moral: When a high tide prevails, stay home.

It was suggested that the president of the Blood Bank be invited to the next meeting to discuss the Assembly's support of the project. The next meeting was scheduled for September 26. Members will be notified of the time and place.

And from there, top winners go on up the ladder through District, Area, Division and National Finals," he said.
